

COLLEGE OMBUDSPERSON

The Title IX coordinator serves as the college's student Ombudsperson. Pursuant to Florida Statute 1006.51, each institution in the Florida College System must have an established procedure by which a student may appeal to the Office of the Ombudsman a decision that is related to the student's access to courses and credit granted toward the degree.

The ombudsperson offers a safe and confidential environment for students to discuss concerns, problems or complaints. As an advocate, the Ombudsperson serves as an independent and unbiased mediator as students resolve academic challenges. In this vein, the Ombudsperson helps students understand college procedures, assists students in exploring possible options for resolution, and makes referrals to appropriate internal and external resources.

College Complaint Procedure Information

Federal regulations and State laws require that public colleges in The Florida College System have processes for students, employees, and applicants to file complaints against their respective college. In almost every situation, the college's process for resolving complaints must be followed first. If a student believes that their complaint has not been addressed satisfactorily after exhausting the college's complaint or grievance procedure, they can pursue filing a complaint with the Florida Department of Education.
