

CCJ-CRIMINOLOGY/CRIMINAL JUST (CCJ)

CCJ 1001 Introduction to Criminology (3 Credits)

An introductory course to provide the student with an intelligent understanding of the causes of crime and delinquency, the methods of prevention and control of crime and delinquency, and an understanding of penal and correctional procedures.

General Education

CCJ 1020 Introduction to Criminal Justice (3 Credits)

A comprehensive overview of the American criminal justice process. The course will examine the history, development and current practices of law enforcement, the courts and the correctional system on the local, state and Federal levels.

General Education

CCJ 2358 Criminal Justice Report Writing (3 Credits)

Prepares student through instruction and practice to obtain required information and properly prepare written reports common to the criminal justice community.

CCJ 2930 Special Topics in Criminal Justice (1-3 Credits)

This course will cover topics of current interest or special interest which impact the criminal justice system.

CCJ 3032 Strategic Communications Practices for Crime and the Media (3 Credits)

The importance the role of senior management in media relations will be addressed. This course explores the relationship among media, the public, and the criminal justice system. The impact of the media and media attention on the operation of the criminal justice system will be examined.

CCJ 3627 Management Response to Special Offenders (3 Credits)

Explores the complications of managing mass, spree, and serial killer investigations. Students will examine real issues in managing investigations of these types of cases, internal and external departmental activities, maintaining justice, victims' rights, interrogation techniques, media coverage of crime, and grief.

CCJ 3661 Risk Management of Terrorism and Violence (3 Credits)

Critical examination and analysis of major issues, definitions, and controversies associated with the development of terrorism in the modern world. Historical, religious, psychological, and sociological aspects that explains the formation of terrorist organizations. Management and leadership challenges in dealing with this type of crime will be examined in detail.

CCJ 3681 Leadership Challenges in Domestic Violence (3 Credits)

Study of the nature and cause of forms of domestic violence. Laws, prevention strategies, and the justice system leadership response will be covered.